

Etowah Countywide Grant Celebration - November 3, 2025

10:00 AM

Etowah County Youth Livestock Facility – Old US Highway 411, Gadsden, AL 35901

11:00 AM

City of Glencoe - 407 Hollingsworth Park Lane, Glencoe, AL 35905

| ETOWAH                                                                                                                               |                                                    |                       |          |                                             |                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|----------|---------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1st Stop - 10:00 AMEtowah County Youth Livestock Facility ADA improvements2024-66 &amp; 2025-53 | Etowah County Youth Livestock Association          | Etowah Jones/Butler   | GF       | $5,909.78$17,500<hr/> $23,409.78 | Etowah County Youth Livestock Facility was upgraded to improve accessibility, safety, and functionality.                                                   |
| 2nd Stop - 11:00 AMWags & WellnessCity of Glencoe Dog ParkCD2024-25                         | City of Glencoe                                    | Etowah Lipscomb/Jones | CDGF | $15,000                                    | The City of Glencoe is creating a new area dog park to meet the needs community members have expressed.                                                    |
| Portable Education/ Meeting Supplies2025-55                                                                               | Etowah County Soil and Water Conservation District | Etowah Jones/Butler   | GF       | $5,000.00                                  | Etowah County SWCD enhanced its ability to host outreach and educational events by improving event resources and equipment.                                |
| North Alabama Training Classroom2025-56                                                                                   | Attalla Fire Rescue                                | Etowah Jones/Butler   | ED       | $7,798.00                                  | Attalla Fire upgraded their training classroom, for a modern, tech equipped space for EMTs, paramedics, and firefighters to complete continuing education. |

|                                                                |                                  |                        |    |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------|----|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Student Commons2025-57                              | Rainbow Middle School            | Etowah Jones/Butler    | ED | $10,000.00 | Rainbow Middle transformed their library into an inclusive Student Commons, a flexible learning space for STEM projects, hands-on activities, and sensory breaks. Funds were used to provide couches, furniture, games, etc.       |
| Student-Run Farm and Flower Stand Initiative2025-58 | Windy Van Hooten Teaching Garden | Etowah Jones/Butler    | ED | $8,500.00  | Windy Van Hooten helps elementary students develop practical skills in math, customer service, entrepreneurship, with garden beds, plants, irrigation systems, and landscaping materials, creating hands-on learning opportunities |
| Big Wills Creek/ Coosa River Water Rescue2024-65    | Attalla Fire and Rescue          | Area Wide Butler/Jones | GF | $10,000    | Attalla Fire and Rescue enhanced its search and rescue capabilities by acquiring kayaks, a raft, and other equipment for accessing Big Wills Creek's more shallow waters.                                                          |